

15th October 2004 – Press Release

JARDINE LLOYD THOMPSON GROUP PLC STATEMENT REGARDING NEW YORK ATTORNEY GENERAL COMPLAINT AGAINST MARSH & MCLENNAN

Jardine Lloyd Thompson Group plc ("JLT"), commenting on the complaint filed in New York by the Attorney General against Marsh & McLennan ("Marsh") yesterday, states:-

JLT has not been approached by the New York Attorney General's office in relation to this investigation, or any other matter.

The Attorney General yesterday commenced legal proceedings against Marsh based on allegations of market rigging, providing fictitious quotes, fraud, illegal conduct and other matters. JLT's internal policies and procedures clearly prohibit such practices.

JLT's business model revolves around acting in the best interests of its clients and putting client's interests first. JLT's business protocols clearly outline to clients the basis of JLT's remuneration and, as a matter of routine, JLT also responds directly to client's requests should they require more detailed information.
