

JLT Announces Its New Hong Kong and Indonesia Managing Directors

1 January 2004

Jardine Lloyd Thompson (JLT) Asia today announced new appointments to head up its operations in Hong Kong and Indonesia. George McGhie was appointed as Managing Director, Jardine Lloyd Thompson Limited in Hong Kong. George is currently Managing Director of JLT Asia's Captive Management business and will retain this responsibility alongside his new role. He replaces Simon Weaver, who has been appointed Managing Director of P.T. Jardine Lloyd Thompson Indonesia. Both George and Simon report to JLT Asia's Managing Director, Mike Methley.

George has worked in Asia for twelve years and previously worked in Bermuda and the UK. Simon joined JLT HK seven years ago and was appointed Managing Director of JLT HK in 2001.

Mike Methley commented that both George and Simon have contributed to JLT's growth and development. He added,

"These new appointments will enable us to capitalise on the significant opportunities for growth in our key markets. George's skills in developing alternative and creative approaches to risk financing will bring a new and added dynamism to our already highly successful team in Hong Kong and Simon's extensive management and new business development experience will help drive JLT Indonesia's business forward."
