

JLT: Evaluating and transferring operational risk

30 April 2004

In today's environment of increased focus on risk – from Basel II, terrorism, fraud and other exposures – it is crucial to have a proactive risk-management framework in place.

Tony Mitchell, Managing Director of Jardine Lloyd Thompson Asia's Financial Solutions team, will be exploring and explaining some effective ways of mitigating risks, such as critical evaluation and assessment of risk, and structuring appropriate insurance programmes at the Asian Bankers Summit 2004 in Hong Kong (5-7 May).

In addition, JLT is sponsoring the Summit which has been established as the premier gathering of senior decision makers in the financial services industry in the Asia Pacific region. It is also the largest gathering of senior analysts and media focusing on the banking industry.

The fifth in the series, the regional event will help JLT to increase its brand visibility amongst an elite group of decision makers in the industry and provide an ideal networking and relationship building opportunities with the largest gathering of senior bankers in the region.

This year it will be held at the beautifully designed Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Center. The event is expected to attract 200 delegates from southeast, south and northeast Asia.
