

Jardine Lloyd Thompson recognised as top new fundraiser by Hong Kong Round Table 10

Leading provider of insurance and risk management services cited as top new fundraiser by Hong Kong Round Table 10, organiser of the Hong Kong Pedal Kart Grand Prix.

HONG KONG, 17 January 2005 - Jardine Lloyd Thompson (JLT), Hong Kong, a leading provider of insurance and risk management expertise, has received the KCRC Cup for Fund Raising Endeavor from the Hong Kong Round Table 10. Based on the total sum raised for charity through sponsorships for the Hong Kong Pedal Kart Grand Prix held this past November, the award recognizes the Company's fund raising efforts as a new participant in the annual event.

The Hong Kong Pedal Kart Grand Prix is an annual race organized by the Hong Kong Human Powered Vehicle Association and Hong Kong Round Table 10 in which teams pedal their custom built pedal cars in relay for 24 hours and collect sponsorship funds for charity. Commenting on the award, JLT's Managing Director, George McGhie said, "We are pleased to have been able to participate in this exciting event and take even greater pleasure in knowing that our efforts are delivering funds to those who really need assistance in the Hong Kong community. Jardine Lloyd Thompson is committed to giving back to the community and this event provided us with an excellent opportunity to have fun while doing just that."
