Jardine Lloyd Thompson and Jardine ShunTak Insurance Brokers celebrate expanded operations in Macau

Hong Kong, September 2005 – Jardine Lloyd Thompson Limited (JLT) and Jardine ShunTak Insurance Brokers Limited (JST) joined with clients and insurers recently to celebrate the opening of the new JLT/JST shared office in Macau. Both JST and JLT, through its Macau branch, have been conducting business in Macau since 1991. This new office signifies an expanded local presence for both companies that will enhance their ability to meet the growing demand for insurance and risk advisory services in Macau's vibrant economy.

Celebration events were also attended by Dr. Antonio Pontes, Executive Director of the Monetary Authority of Macau; Miss. Maria Luisa Man, Deputy Director of the Insurance Supervision Department, Monetary Authority of Macau; Mr. Ambrose So, Executive Director of Shun Tak Holdings Limited and Mr. Y. K. Pang, Chairman of JLT, Hong Kong and Director of Jardine Matheson Limited.

George McGhie, Managing Director of JLT in Hong Kong and host of the events, stated on behalf of both companies, "We have over the years received tremendous support from our clients and business partners and are pleased to have this occasion to show our appreciation. Macau is an important market for both JLT and JST and this expansion demonstrates our long-term commitment to continuing to provide the highest possible quality of service to our clients here."
