25 October 2006

APPOINTMENT OF REGIONAL DIRECTOR FOR ENERGY & INDUSTRY RISKS

Singapore, 25 October 2006 - Jardine Lloyd Thompson (JLT) Asia has appointed Jean-Christophe Ribot as its Regional Director for Energy & Industry Risks.

Jean-Christophe brings with him a wealth of experience in the power sector and large civil works, having worked in Thailand, Vietnam, Laos, China and Hong Kong. He has been in the risk and project management/insurance business for a total of 15 years.

Jean-Christophe has an international expertise in the finance, legal, insurance, technical and commercial areas, as well as a first class experience dealing with complex non-recourse or limited recourse contractual frames.

He has handled claims negotiations consisting of very significant amounts and customised facultative insurance programmes. His most recent project was the development, financial closing and construction of a US$1.5 billion hydroelectric project and appurtenant civil works in Laos/Thailand.

Prior to his Asia experience, Jean-Christophe has worked in Gabon, Central Africa, Central Europe and Eastern Europe.

JLT Asia Managing Director Mike Methley said: "Jean-Christophe's wide international experience and specialised expertise in project financed deals – in both construction and operational phases – will be an added advantage to our very strong and reputed energy sector practice."
