25 April 2007

APPOINTMENT OF MANAGING DIRECTOR, ENERGY & INDUSTRY RISKS

Singapore, 25 April 2007 – Jardine Lloyd Thompson (JLT) Asia has appointed Richard Scott, an industry veteran with 22 years experience specialising in energy and natural resources, to the position of Managing Director, Energy & Industry Risks Division.

Richard was most recently a partner with JLT Agnew Higgins, the Energy division of JLT in London, where he specialised in oil, gas and petrochemical risks – both onshore and offshore – for operational risks and construction projects throughout Europe, Asia and the Middle-East.

Prior to JLT, Richard was with Aon for 11 years, focusing on developing insurance and risk management solutions (including captives) for major domestic and international companies and projects throughout Europe, Asia, Middle East, Africa and the former Soviet Union.

Richard also spent 4 years in Bahrain with Arab Insurance Group – the largest Middle East regional reinsurer – as their Energy Claims Manager. His other experience includes energy loss adjusting with Toplis & Harding London.

JLT Asia Managing Director, Mike Methley said: “Richard’s very broad experience of business production and placement and his success in managing large and complex client accounts gives him an excellent background for the business in Asia, which includes onshore and offshore Oil and Gas, in addition to Power and Major Industrial Risks.”
