25 April 2007

APPOINTMENT OF REGIONAL DIRECTOR, ENERGY & INDUSTRY RISKS

Singapore, 25 April 2007 – Jardine Lloyd Thompson (JLT) Asia has appointed Rainer Lehner as Regional Director for JLT Asia's Energy & Industry Risks Division. Rainer will have specific responsibility for our Offshore Oil & Gas business.

Rainer has 17 years of industry experience, including 8 years in the petroleum industry, 6 of which were in this region. He also has specialised experience as a geophysicist/geologist, where his main responsibility included assessing marine geological risks.

Prior to joining JLT, Rainer was with Swiss Re where he started out as underwriter for the property treaty business in Zurich; subsequently moving to Singapore, where he was Senior Offshore Energy Underwriter for clients in Asia Pacific and Middle-East.

In addition to his wide underwriting experience, Rainer also has a strong track record in client relationship management and business development. Apart from traditional insurance structures, he has significant experience in non-traditional multi-year deals, on both the treaty and facultative sides.

JLT Asia Managing Director, Mike Methley said: "Rainer's technical background and Asian experience gives us a leading edge over our competitors and will allow us to continue to grow our Energy business across the region."
