

APPOINTMENT OF MANAGING DIRECTOR, ENERGY

Singapore, 25 February 2010 - Jardine Lloyd Thompson (JLT) Asia has appointed Richard Burrige to the position of Managing Director, Energy. Richard has 20 years industry experience, of which he has spent the last 13 years specialising in the Asian Energy market.

During his career, Richard has been involved in all aspects of Energy-related insurance, for onshore and offshore operators and contractors, in direct, reinsurance, and advisory capacities.

Richard started his career with Sedgwick Marine in 1990, focusing on the Liability sector before moving to join Jardine Insurance Brokers (now JLT Group) in 1993, where he went on to lead the Energy market broking team. In 1997, Richard relocated to Singapore where he joined JLT Asia and helped establish the Group's regional energy business. In 2005, Richard left JLT to join Alexander Forbes (now Lockton) to lead their construction and energy insurance business across Asia.

JLT Asia's Chief Executive Officer, Warren Merritt, said: "JLT will continue to build its business through the recruitment of quality resources and training of our existing staff. Our focus is to provide innovative insurance solutions that meet the requirements of clients.

"Richard's experience and depth of knowledge will augment our strengths, allowing our Energy team in Asia to continue providing quality service to its clients, as well as continuing to increase our profile and capabilities across Asia-Pacific," he added.
